

Students in grades K-12 will be charged a $30 instructional materials assessment this year. Please complete the form below and return it and the assessment by September 29.

Parents whose family income qualifies them for free lunch may check the appropriate box on the free lunch application allowing for the information to be shared for school fee purposes. If this box is not checked, the information cannot be shared.

Please send the completed form and payment to school with your child. Our teachers will collect the assessments and forward them to the main office.

Make checks payable to Wadsworth City Schools. If you wish to pay more than one child's assessment with the same check, please write each child's name on this form, as well as on the memo line of the check.
