

Students in grades K-12 will be charged a $30 instructional materials assessment this year. Please complete the form below and return it with payment by the end of September. Another option is to pay online from the PaySchools link (found under Frequent Links) on our district website at www.wadsworthschools.org.

If family income qualifies your student for free lunch and you want to have your student's fees waived, please check the box on the "Sharing Information with Other Programs" form that is part of the free/reduced lunch application. Copies are available from District Forms-Food Service Forms on our district website at or by contacting Mrs. Kelly Gnap, Food Service Supervisor, at (330) 335-1436.

Please send the completed form and payment to school with your student. Our teachers will collect the assessments and forward them to the main office. Make checks payable to Wadsworth City Schools. If you wish to pay more than one students' assessment with the same check, please write each student's name on this form, as well as on the memo line of the check.
