

October WHYS Meeting Minutes

October 15, 2015

Meeting called to order by Karen Hamilton at 9:34 a.m.

Principal's Report-Walk to school day was a success! Book Fair is coming up and is a great fundraiser. We are working on getting more Chromebooks for the classrooms. The third grade MAP testing went well. Go math is working nicely in classrooms and teachers will work on sending more information home. Many classrooms are having pumpkin and fall activities during the next few weeks. Weekenders program is going great! Veterans Day Program is 11/6 at 1:30.

Board Reports:

Secretary: Minutes stand as written.

First VP: No report

Treasurer: Please turn in membership forms.

Second VP: Need refreshments for WHYS United meeting.

Committee Chair Reports

Book Fair: Need volunteers. There will be a teacher preview from 8:15-9 am on 10/20. Evening shopping for families is on 10/20 from 4:30-8.

Lego Club: There are over 60 members and it is going well.

Box Tops: Over 500 have been turned in. Contest goes until December. A possible contest for second half of year is being discussed.

Weekenders: 27 bags are going out. Need extra bags and snacks for holiday weekends. We are always looking for more snacks to stock pantry.

Spiritwear: Patty Hudak is working with A-1 sports. We also received a quote of pricing from Hands on Originals.

Fundraisers: Casa del Rio will be all day on 10/26 and you will need to have a flyer. Chipotle is 4-8 on 11/17, no flyer is needed.

Conference Dinner: Quaker Steak and Lube is donating dinner.

Old Business, New Business, and Announcements

We are still looking for a babysitter to use during our meetings. Jen Carlson motioned to approve Golf membership gift for Kim Daniels. We are now able to use bulletin board outside of office for WHYS information. Jen Carlson is looking for volunteers for Veterans Day assembly. $1500 of Scholastic dollars went to teachers and library to spend. Our United Way earnings were over $1000! We are looking for volunteers to reshelv books in the library and to clean out supply room. Volunteer of the month was Brittney Eddy and Lisa Dolgowicz.
